

Certified as a “Tokyo Sports Promotion Company” in 2024

Mori Hospitality Corporation (Minato-ku, Tokyo; President & CEO: Hiroo Mori) has been certified by the Tokyo Metropolitan Government as a “Tokyo Sports Promotion Company for 2024” for the first time.

The Tokyo Metropolitan Government certifies companies that make outstanding efforts to promote sports activities among their employees and provide support in the field of sports as “Tokyo Sports Promotion Companies” every fiscal year. This year, 102 companies were newly certified, bringing the total number of Tokyo Sports Promotion Enterprises to 583, including 481 companies that were certified in the previous fiscal year.

We regard employee health management as a management strategy and promote health management so that our employees can work enthusiastically and in good mental and physical health, and we have been certified as one of the “Excellent Health Management Corporations 2024 (Large Corporations)” and “Sports Yell Company 2024”.

Yoga and meditation class for Mori Building Group employees

Along with the promotion of health management activities, we will continue to provide opportunities for sports initiatives, actively support the maintenance and promotion of employee health, and strive to create a vigorous and energetic work environment.

